Jokes - Mom Edition

Mom No. 1: How do you get your sleepy-head son up in the morning?
Mom No. 2: I just put the cat on the bed.
Mom No. 1: How does that help?
Mom No. 2: The dog's already there.

Baby snake: Mommy, are we poisonous?
Mother snake: Yes, son.Why?
Baby snake: I just bit my tongue!

Chris: Why is a computer so smart?
Mom: It listens to its motherboard.

Son: Dad, do you know the difference between a pack of cookies and a pack of elephants?
Dad: No.
Son: Then it's a good thing Mom does the grocery shopping!

Sunday school teacher: Tell me, Johnny. Do you say prayers before eating?
Johnny: No, ma'am, I don't have to. My mom's a good cook.

Doug: I think my mom's getting serious about straightening up my room once and for all.
Dan: How do you know?
Doug: She's learning to drive a bulldozer.

Ryan: Why did you chop the joke book in half?
John: Mom said to cut the comedy.

Erin: What did the mother bullet say to the daddy bullet?
Fran: What?
Erin: "We're gonna have a BB!"

Joker: Why did the monster's mother knit him three socks?
Harvey: I have no clue.
Joker: She heard he grew another foot!

A mother is trying to get her son to eat carrots. "Carrots are good for your eyes," she says.
"How do you know?" the boy asks.
The mother replies, "Have you ever seen a rabbit wearing glasses?"

Elephant: Why do mother kangaroos hate rainy days?
Hippo: I give up.

Elephant: Because their kids have to play inside!

Matthew: What did the mother rope say to her child?
Jim: What?
Matthew: "Don't be knotty."

Daffynition: Minimum—A small mother.

A mother mouse and a baby mouse are walking along when suddenly a cat attacks them. The mother mouse shouts "BARK!" and the cat runs away. "See?" the mother mouse says to her baby. "Now do you see why it's important to learn a foreign language?"

Jack: What did the mother broom say to the baby broom?
Bill: What?
Jack: It's time to go to sweep!

Mother to son: I'm warning you. If you fall out of that tree and break both your legs, don't come running to me!

Robbie: Larry's mother had four children. Three were named North, South and West. What was her other child's name?
Bobbie: East?
Robbie: No. Larry.

Daffynition: Sweater—something you wear when your mother gets cold.

Pee Wee: What did the digital clock say to its mother?
Westy: What?
Pee Wee: "Look, Ma! No hands!"

Ben: How come the mother needle got mad at the baby needle?
Jerry: I dunno.
Ben: It was way past its threadtime!

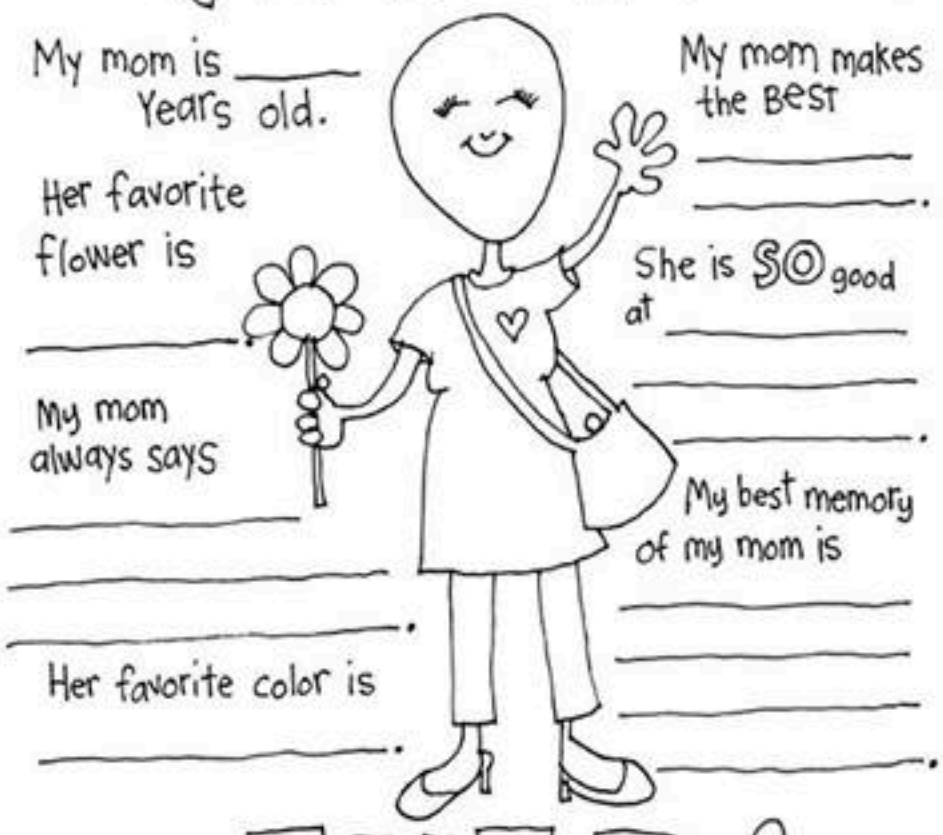

Help the mother and baby find their way through the MOM shaped maze to find the missing rattle.

Where were you born and raised? Beautiful Columbus, Ga

What is your proffession? Radio Personality at PMB Broadcasting- Morning Show Co Host on 103.7 Lite FM

How long have you been in radio? I've been in radio since I was 16 years old, until I was officially hired at PMB when I was a senior in high school, at Columbus High. I've been on air for 5 years now, and I have loved every minute of it.

What is your personal future goal? what's on your bucket list? I want to be able to look back at my accomplishments and experiences, and know I did everything I possibly could to be happy, and achieve my goals. Even if I dont accomplish everything, I want to be able to say i tried, and I worked hard. But right now, It's finishing college, graduation is in May and I'm beyond excited. I've always wanted to visit a country on every continent, So far I have 3 down! Another would be to see the Northern Lights.

Discribe yourself in 3 words. Always really hungry.

What do you do for fun? I love traveling, it's my favorite hobby, I also love just binging movies, any movie, seeing my friends, and running. running is my therapy.

Favorite music, artist. What's playing in your car right now? I love a little bit of everything. My all time favorite band is Paramore, they just realized a new song, and Im currently listening to it on repeat in my car. On a Panic! At the Disco binge right now as well.

Do u have a secret talent you would like to share? I like taking pictures, my friends always ask me to be their photographer, because I take the best candids so I've been told.

Life quote? "i have what i have and i am happy, i've lost what i've lost and i am still happy." - Rupi Kaur

THE RUN DOWN: IVAN KELLEY

What inspires your music?
The vibe around me. My emotions too. Whatever I'm going through all plays a part in my music.

How did you get started in the music industry?
Actually, I had my first studio session when I was 3 years old. My older brother also does music so my first studio session was when I did a feature for him and his group.

How would you describe yourself as an artist?
That's hard to do. I don't like to say because I'm my worst critic.

What sets your music apart from others in your genre?
I'm well rounded. I produce my own music so the sound all around is really myself. Also, I'm able to do almost any genre.

When you are working on a new song... Do you already have a concept in mind or do you rather write on top of music/beats?/What is your thought process when working on new music?
I usually come up with a beat first, then a melody on top of the beat, and finally, I write lyrics to the melody.

What are some of your musical influences? Michael Jackson, Pharrell, and Timberland.

What hard lessons have you learned while working in the industry?
I've learned that everybody is trying to get to the same spot as you-- the top, so it's hard to trust people and have friends within the industry. But when you do find them, you have to cherish them and hold on to them tight!

What direction do you see the music industry going?
I see it growing but in a much more simplistic manner.

What steps have you taken to market your music?
I focus more so on making marketable music, but I leave the actual marketing up to my team.

If you can have any collaboration with an artist who would it be and why?
Chris brown Usher Tinashe Nicki Minaj Kanye West because they all bring something different to the table.

If you can work with any music producer who would it be and why?
Timbaland,Pharrell,DJ Khaled,Kanyewest because they all have signature sounds we know and love.

What song(s) are you currently promoting? Who is the producer and how did the song come about?
Toyz R Us the with Ncredible1, The Kid Plot, and myself. And Brown Sugar Chalease feat. myself, which I also produced.

What music project are you currently promoting? Who are some of the music producers? So the project I'm currently promoting/heading is called Manni$h. It's this group of three boys age ranging from 5-7 and they're so dope. I'm producing, engineering, writing, and doing vocal arrangements for them. The concept is basically-- Mannish.

THE RUN DOWN: CHALEASE

What is your thought process when working on new music?

It varies, really. Everything I write is inspired by something - I just kind of let everything go. I love that freedom. When I hear a beat I'm inspired to write to, I go to a concept, pour everything into it, and then think whether or not I would listen to it if it came on the radio station. As long as I feel excited about it in the end, I know I've put my all into the record.

What inspires your music?

Everything you hear from me is inspired by something: an emotion, experience, something I'm passionate about, or even a lyric from another song. I love trying new things and pushing my own boundaries. I crave challenges, so sometimes I'll set my goals outside of my comfort zone, then create. At the end of the day, you are your biggest competition, so if you're consistently competing with yourself, you'll always improve.

How would you classify your music?

Oh, that's a hard one. I think my style is eclectic - I love playing with different sounds and styles to make people feel something. East Coast hip hop, West Coast sounds, rock, down south heavy bass, all the way to lighthearted pop - it's all me. And each record will resonate with different people. If I HAD to choose a genre, it'd be hip hop because I'm so immersed into the culture, but I'm kind of all over the map.

How did you get started in the music industry?

I've had a craving to sing since I was a little girl. I was always writing my own lyrics, and singing everywhere I could. But when 8 Mile came out, everyone started battle rapping. And I was a scrawny little kid with buck teeth, and so the boys would make fun of me in elementary school. Every day on the playground, I'd listen to these battle raps - and one day, I got to writing and clowning one of the kids in school. He had no idea what was coming! Haha! But that's where I started dabbling in rap. As I got older, I realized that hip hop was more than an infatuation - it was innate. When I was 18, I was in the studio getting ready to record a song, and I was free styling a verse for it. But I was so scared that it was gonna sound corny, that I didn't want to record it. He heard my verse and stopped the music, told me to come out and asked me why I hadn't rapped before. The rest was history from there.

How would you describe yourself as an artist?

If we're talking the bigger picture - my goal is to make this world a better place through music. I've got party songs, yes. I've got sexy songs, yes. But I've also got important things to say that I'm passionate about. And in my "conscious" raps, I'm speaking truths and taboo. I want women to realize that they can be themselves and be accepted anywhere. I'm proud to be all these things other people may deem as a weakness in the industry: a minority woman, a mother, a female artist in a male dominated industry. My mission is deeper than just hip hop or music in general.

What sets your music apart from others in your genre?

Because of my eclectic taste in music, I've got a bit of everything in my catalog. I don't think my sound should be boxed in to some cookie cutter hip hop sound because I rap. I love creating new, fresh sounds and challenging myself to create something different. I sing when I want, I rap on what I want, and I make it sounds how I want. It doesn't matter if it's a trap beat, a mariachi sounding record, or a mid-tempo pop track. I'll create something that resonates with someone. The goal is to create timeless music. I want people to remember my name.

COLUMBUS/FT. BENNING RUGBY CLUB HOSTS TOURNAMENT

Twelve rugby clubs from across the south compete in Georgia's longest running 7s tournament

COLUMBUS- On June 3rd, the Columbus/Ft. Benning Cruise-A-Matics (Cruisers) Rugby Club will play host as teams compete in a rugby 7s tournament on their home pitch at 1904 Blanchard Boulevard (aka the Cruiser Dome). Dubbed "Hotter than Hell 7s", it is Georgia's longest running 7s tournament with 2017 being the 34th year in a row. Recent champions include clubs from Tallahassee and Atlanta. Kickoff is set for 10:00 am with matches lasting into the early evening.

Rugby 7s is a variation from the traditional rugby game which features 7 players aside instead of 15, with matches lasting 14 minutes long (7 minute halves) rather than 80 minutes. Because there are less players on the pitch, the pace of the game is faster and the scoring is higher.

Twelve clubs are expected to attend, and with spectators the crowd typically ranges around 200-250 people. Local food trucks will be on site to provide nourishment. Admission is free for spectators. Kids and well behaved dogs on leashes are welcome.

ABOUT COLUMBUS/FT. BENNING CRUISE-A-MATICS RUGBY CLUB

The Cruisers were formed in July 1983 and have been competitive in southern rugby for over 30 years. The team is made up of a mixture of civilians and military playing in Division 3 of the Georgia Rugby Union against clubs from Atlanta, Savannah, Athens, Augusta and Macon. Practices are on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7-9 pm at the Cruiser Dome, and new players are always welcome.

What are some of your musical influences?
Oh man, how much time do we have?! I grew up with a crazy range of music: from AC-DC to The Cure to Madonna to Nas, to TLC to Junior MAFIA to Selena Quintanilla to 90's pop music. You name a band, and I'm probably influenced by them in some shape or form. The more we limit our exposure, the more limited our own music becomes.

What hard lessons have you learned while working in the industry?
I think the hardest lesson I've had to learn so far is being open to change if it means growing. I'm not saying that we have to change who we are to the point where we don't like ourselves anymore. I'm saying that change is necessary if you want to grow. Sometimes we get so content in our comfort zone that we forget where the real adventures are - outside of it.
Another challenge is balance in this industry. Personal life and work life often overlaps - and a lot of times, it can consume my personal life because I am so passionate about music. There was a time where I was barely sleeping, I was flying here and there, and shooting videos, and scheduling things - where my body had interfered. I had a mini-stroke and it was one of the scariest things in my entire life. So many things had to come to a halt - and it was the biggest wake up call ever. Something greater than me made me realize that I needed to find a balance.

Are you nervous when you go on stage? What do you do before the show?
Oh my gawd. I think I have the worst stage fright ever leading up to a show. I'm a nervous wreck, but cool and composed on the outside. I just get really quiet a few hours before the show, rehearse my set a few times, listen to some Eminem, and surround myself with really good people who make me laugh. By then, my nerves subside, and when I hit the stage and the lights come on, I'm ready.

How do you feel about creating music videos?
I think music videos are one of my favorite parts! I love the creative process that goes behind each video. It's a chance to do something new, visually, and connect with fans in a different way.

What song(s) are you currently promoting? Who is the producer and how did the song come about? Right now, we're about to be pushing "Brown Sugar" featuring Ivan Kelley. And Ivan actually produced the record, sampling D'Angelo's Brown Sugar. Ivan's a part of the same team I am, and our manager sent me the record saying that he thinks it'd be fire if I wrote to it. In the original record, D'Angelo's lyrics were sensual, but if you listened closely, he wasn't talking about a woman. He was talking about smoking. So we flipped it to something a little more sexy.

What are your project plans for the rest of 2017?
Just continuing to create and release new visuals and music. Our goal is to gain momentum and broaden my fanbase to start booking tours.

What do you do for fun?
I love being outside and exploring new places. So I love to travel, take road trips, and see things I've never seen before. I soak in as much as possible when I'm not in a studio or on set.

If you could blink your eyes and be in a favorite place right now...where would that be? The Virgin Islands! The Caribbean was so beautiful and peaceful - I could definitely use some white sand beaches and clear blue water right now.

Whats your favorite passion other than music?
Traveling and giving back are my other passions. It's important to me to see as much of the world as I possibly can and to change it as much as I can while I'm here.

Celebrity crush?
Thor. Something about that powerful hammer...

Top 10 Wishes for Mother's Day: What Mom Really

1. UTO (Unpaid Time Off)
Every mom has a list of about 20 things she'd like to get done on any given day, but she usually only has time to successfully conquer three. Our moms would love a day to tackle their To-Dos or just to be free to do whatever they want, no questions asked.

2. Sleep
Moms think going to sleep when they are tired on Saturday and awakening on their own without the alarm clock or the voice of a child on Sunday is a dream come true. Plus, it's 100 percent free!
Extra credit: Give mom a full night's rest and a nap, preferably in a hammock with a good book and a cold drink.

3. Clean House
Being a mom is stressful, and coming home to a clean house, even if it only lasts 10 minutes, is like a little slice of heaven for us. Hire a professional or, at the very least, get the kids to help pick up around the house.
Extra credit: Purchase a housecleaning package from a coupon site to use throughout the year, or hire a pro to come in and tackle deep cleaning or organizing projects.

4. Spa Day
A massage, mani/pedi or facial are all wonderful gifts to show us how much we're appreciated. Older kids could get creative and set up a home spa with candles, homemade scrubs, etc.
Extra credit: A whole spa day full of pampering.

5. A Day Free from the "Mom Routine"
We love being mamas; we really do. But we would also love a day free from the "mom routine." That means no dishes, laundry, chauffeur duty, dressing little ones, getting kids out the door, mediating sibling arguments, etc.

6. Car Wash
A vehicle free from crumbs and clutter is like a commuting oasis.
Extra credit: Get it detailed.

7. Home Delivery Service
For $79 a year through Amazon Mom, you can get free, two-day shipping on millions of items with Amazon Prime. Our moms have saved a ton of time, not to mention their sanity, trying to run errands with small kids in tow. We think it's worth every penny.

8. Turn the Honey-Do into a Honey-Done List
Every time we walk by that broken _____ (fill in the blank), it drives us crazy. If you complete the Honey-Do List of lingering household projects, you will be one happy man come Father's Day — trust us!

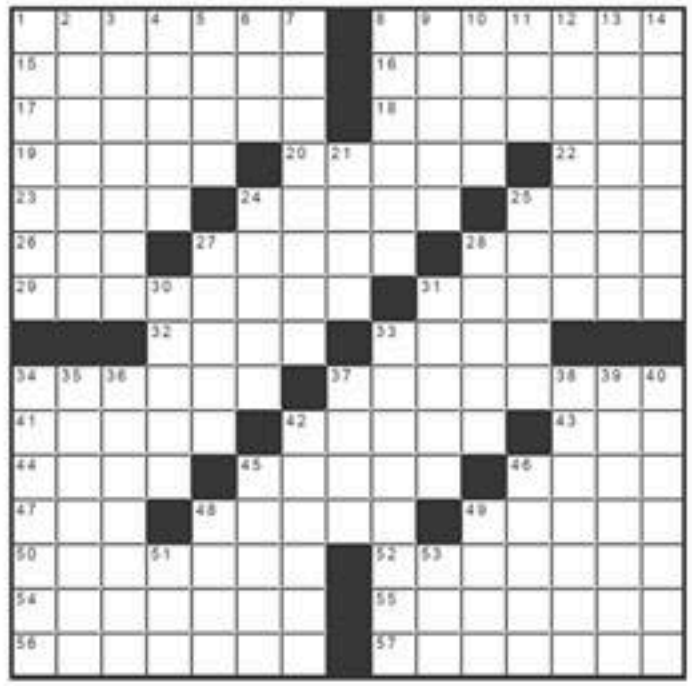

9. What's for Dinner?
If you take care of dinner, including the grocery shopping, for one week, it would free us up to enjoy more quality time as a family, which is what we all want.

10. The Best Things in Life are Free
The gifts we will treasure forever are the homemade cards, handprints and photo frames from our children that remind us what a blessing it truly is to be a mom.
